As a professional travel counselor with over 36 years travel agency experience I work with busy travelers who are looking to escape everyday stresses and celebrate life's occasions. Many of the destinations shown below are ones I've personally visited, some multiple times. So whether you are looking for relaxation, excitement, culture or history I can provide you with the best carefree, time saving travel experience from beginning to end. By carefully listening to your desires I'm able to create an unforgettable customized vacation experience that will strengthen familial bonds and build memories of a lifetime. Call 614.766.5625, for your professional consultation.
